

This policy applies to your access to and use of all Internet sites and mobile applications operated by or on behalf of The Pleasant Street United Methodist Church and official United Methodist Church entities worldwide, including its governing bodies, conferences, districts, agencies, local churches, ministries, institutions, offices, programs, and other official related organizations. To the extent permitted by law, as a global family of entities, we may transfer your personal information to individual entities within our family.

Scope of this policy

This policy governs our privacy practices regarding your personal information whether we collect it through our sites or apps or through other means, such as in person, by telephone, or through suppliers, vendors, and other partners. Additional specific policies or agreements may apply to certain websites, apps, products, and services. If such policies or agreements conflict with this policy, the terms of those policies or agreements will prevail.

We will not use your information for anything but our own use of the PSUMC.

We will not give your information out.

We will at all times preserve the confidentiality of the congregants of PSUMC

This web site is for the use of the PSUMC family only

Links to other websites and social media features and plug-ins on as need basis

Our sites and apps may include links to other websites or allow you to use certain features and plug-ins that integrate third-party social media sites and other third-party features and tools. You have the choice whether to access the links or activate the features. We cannot ensure the privacy policies of sites that we do not own or control. This privacy policy does not apply to any third-party linked sites, and we are not responsible for the privacy practices or the contents of such external sites. We encourage you to consult the privacy policies of such sites before sharing any personal information through them or activating the features.

We will not trade, sell, or share your personal information for use by any business without your consent, unless required by law or as disclosed to you when the information is collected. We only share your personal information in accordance with applicable law.

If you have any questions about our policy, please contact the PSUMC office at 207-872-7564
